EXECUTIVE EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT made effective as of the 21st day of June, 2022 (the "Effective Date").

BETWEEN:

CASHCO FINANCIAL INC., a corporation incorporated pursuant to the laws of Alberta (the "Company")

-and-

DAN BRUINOOGE, an individual resident in the County of Sturgeon in the Province of Alberta (the "Employee")

(collectively, the "Parties")

WHEREAS:

The Company wishes to employ the Employee in the role of Chief People and Culture Officer.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual premises and the covenants set forth in this Agreement and in consideration of the increase to the financial compensation paid to the Employee by the Company as of the Effective Date, the sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1: EMPLOYMENT AND DUTIES

1.1 The Employee shall be employed as Chief People and Culture Officer as of the Effective Date and such employment shall continue indefinitely unless earlier terminated in accordance with Article 4 of this Agreement (the "Term").

1.2 The Employee shall perform the duties and responsibilities of the Chief People and Culture Officer, including all those duties and responsibilities customarily performed by a person holding the same or an equivalent position, as senior person responsible for human resources, in entities of a similar size to the Company, engaged in business similar to the Company, as well as such other related duties and responsibilities as may be assigned to the Employee by the Company or the Chief Executive Officer, acting reasonably, from time to time.

1.3 In performance of his duties, the Employee shall act honestly, in good faith, and in the best interests of the Company, and shall exercise the degree of diligence and responsibility that a person having the Employee's expertise and knowledge of the affairs of the Company would reasonably be expected to exercise in comparable circumstances.

1.4 The Employee recognizes that his primary business obligation is to the Company and agrees, unless prevented by ill health or as otherwise agreed by the Company in writing, to devote substantially all of his working time and attention to the Company and not to permit the pursuit of other interests to interfere with the fulfillment of his duties as Chief People and Culture Officer. The Employee shall disclose actual or potential business conflicts of interest to the Company in writing, forthwith as they arise. The Employee shall raise any uncertainty as to whether such a conflict exists for determination by the Company, acting reasonably. The Employee shall conduct himself to as to avoid any actual or potential conflicts of interest.

1.5 The Employee is bound by the policies of the Company and it is the Employee's responsibility to read and familiarize themselves with these policies (as may be amended from time to time) and address any concerns with the Chief Executive Officer. In the event of a conflict or inconsistency between the Company's policies and this Agreement, this Agreement shall prevail and apply. The Employee acknowledges that the Company has the right to make changes to its policies and to institute new policies from time to time and agrees that such changes or additions will be binding from the time they are communicated or on the date specified by the Company.

ARTICLE 2: HOURS OF WORK

2.1 The Employee acknowledges and agrees that the duties and responsibilities associated with the Employee's employment are managerial and executive in character. The Employee only performs non-supervisory or non-managerial tasks on an irregular or exceptional basis. As such, although the Employee's duties may require the Employee to be available for work outside of normal working hours, the Employee acknowledges and agrees that he is not entitled to overtime pay.

ARTICLE 3: REMUNERATION AND BENEFITS

3.1 During the Term, and in consideration of the Employee's undertaking and the performance of the obligations contained herein, the Company shall provide the following compensation:

3.1.1 The Employee shall receive an annual base salary ("Annual Base Salary") of $205,000.00 CAD, less statutory deductions, payable in bi-weekly installments in arrears.

3.1.2 The Employee's performance will be evaluated annually by the Chief Executive Officer (the "Annual Evaluation"). After the Annual Evaluation, the Employee's Annual Base Salary may be increased, reasonably changed, or remain unchanged in varying increments, at the discretion of the Chief Executive Officer and upon approval from the Advisory Board.

3.1.3 The Employee will be eligible to participate in the Company's discretionary bonus plan, variable pay plan, or incentive plan (the "Bonus Plans") in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Bonus Plans, as established by the Company from time to time.

3.1.3.1 The Employee acknowledges and agrees that the Company may in its sole discretion amend or discontinue the Bonus Plans, or any of them.

3.1.3.2 The Employee will be eligible to participate in any Long-Term Incentive Plans or Employee Ownership plans should those be developed and implemented by the company in the future.

3.1.4 The Employee will be eligible to participate in any Executive medical, dental, life, long term disability or health benefit plans that the Company has in effect for its employees, as may be amended from time to time, the details of which are governed by the formal plan documents, contracts, or policies in place for each benefit. Any issues concerning entitlement or payment of any particular benefit are governed by the terms of the applicable plan documents, contracts or policies.

3.1.4.1 The Company may in its sole discretion, amend, revise, reduce, or discontinue any of the benefits in the benefits plan. No such amendment, revision, reduction, or discontinuance will result in termination, constructive or otherwise, of the Employee's employment.

3.2 The Employee shall be entitled to a paid vacation of four (4) weeks per year provided that vacation shall be taken in accordance with the Company's policies and at times mutually agreeable to the Employee and the Company, acting reasonably. Subject to applicable law, the Employee shall be entitled to carry forward any vacation for one subsequent year. Vacation entitlement is on a calendar year basis.

3.3 The Employee will be provided with a company cell phone, or equivalent compensation, for business use. The Company shall properly reimburse the Employee for all reasonable travel and out of pocket expenses properly incurred by the Employee from time to time in connection with carrying out the duties under this agreement and in accordance with the Company's policies on expenses and expense reimbursement, and subject to the Employee furnishing the Company with receipts whenever possible.

3.4 The Employee shall be entitled to an annual allowance of $1,000 for professional membership fees and/or expenses. Additionally, the employee will be entitled to three (3) professional development days per year for conferences, workshops, etc.

3.5 The Employee is eligible to participate in the matching RSP program.

ARTICLE 4: TERMINATION

4.1 Under this Agreement, "Termination Date" means the last day actively worked by the Employee for the Company, regardless of reason for cessation of employment, and excludes any periods for which pay in lieu of notice have been provided.

4.2 The Company may terminate the Employee's employment for Just Cause at any time, without notice and without any payment to the Employee whatsoever, save and except for the payment of any Annual Base Salary and vacation pay accrued but unpaid up to the Termination Date. The Employee shall not receive any further notice, pay in lieu of notice, bonus payment or any other entitlements under this Agreement.

4.3 The Employee may terminate his employment with the Company at any time, for any reason, by providing sixty (60) days advance written notice to the Company and the Company shall have no further obligation under this Agreement or pursuant to the Employee's employment, and no other compensation shall be payable to the Employee after the expiry of said notice. The Company may, in its sole discretion, waive, in whole or in part, the notice period, in which case the Employee's entitlement to remuneration and benefits cease effective the date set by the Company, save as the payment made to the Employee will be greater of 30 days, or as may be required by Employment Standards Code, RSA 2000 c E-9 (as amended from time to time).

4.4 The Company may terminate the Employee's employment, for any reason without cause, by providing the Employee the following, less required withholdings:

(a) All accrued but unpaid Annual Base Salary to the Termination Date;

(b) All accrued but unpaid vacation pay to the Termination Date;

(c) Subject to section 4.6 of this Agreement, a severance amount equal to three (3) months of the Annual Base Salary plus one (1) month of the Annual Base Salary for each completed year of service as of the Termination Date up to a maximum of twelve (12) months.

(d) A payment in lieu of bonus will be paid to the Employee as recommended by the Chief Executive Officer and approved by the Board.

4.5 Prior to, and as a condition of receiving the payments or entitlements in section 4.4 of this Agreement, which are acknowledged to be over and above the Employee's entitlement to termination notice or termination pay under the Employment Standards Code, RSA 2000 c E-9 (as amended from time to time), the Employee agrees to execute a full and final release in favour of the Company, in a form satisfactory to the Company.

4.5.1 In the event the Employee does not sign a release as described in section 4.5 of this Agreement, the Employee shall not receive the payments or entitlements in section 4.4

and the Employee's notice or pay in lieu of notice will be restricted to no more than the amount of notice or termination pay in lieu of notice to which the Employee is entitled pursuant to the provisions of the Employment Standards Code, RSA 2000 c E-9 (as amended from time to time).

4.6 The Employee's employment shall automatically terminate upon the death of the Employee.

4.7 On the Termination Date, the Employee shall promptly surrender to the Company all documents, materials, data, property, and equipment belonging to the Company or relating to the Company's business, in his possession, custody, or control including, but not limited to, client lists, business plans, and marketing information, and the Employee shall not thereafter retain or deliver to any other person any of the foregoing or any summary or memorandum thereof.

4.8 Notwithstanding the termination of the Employee's employment however caused, or the manner of termination, the provisions of Articles 5, 6 and 7 shall survive such termination.

ARTICLE 5: CONFIDENTIALITY

5.1 The Employee acknowledges that in consideration of being employed by the Company, the Employee will acquire knowledge and/or information about certain matters which are confidential to the Company whether in the course of or incidental to the Employee's employment and which knowledge or information is the exclusive property of the Company, including but not limited to:

(a) Financial information;

(b) Customer lists;

(c) Policies;

(d) Payment terms;

(e) Knowledge and/or information relating to the Company's competitors;

(f) Intellectual property and/or data;

(g) Information related to the affairs of the Company and its affiliated or related organizations; and

(h) Such other knowledge and/or information as the Company may from time to time identify as being confidential or proprietary information.

The entirety of which is referred to as "Confidential Information".

5.2 During the Term and at any time thereafter, the Employee shall receive and hold all Confidential Information absolutely secret, undisclosed, in trust and in confidence, and shall comply with the Company's policies and guidelines and use his best efforts for the protection of Confidential Information. All originals, copies, and other forms of Confidential Information, however and whenever produced, shall be and remain the sole property of the Company.

5.3 The Employee shall not reveal or disclose to any person outside the Company or use for his own benefit, whether by private communication or by public address or publication or otherwise, any Confidential Information without the Company's specific written authorization or except as required by mandatory provision of applicable law or regulatory requirement provided however, that prior to any unauthorized use or disclosure of Confidential Information that is required by law, the Employee shall give the Company reasonable prior notice of any disclosure of Confidential Information required by law and, if requested by the Company, shall permit and cooperate with the Company to obtain a protective order or similar protection for the Company.

5.4 The Employee acknowledges and agrees that:

(a) As a result of the acquisition of Confidential Information, the Employee will occupy a position of trust and confidence with the Company and its affiliates, clients, partners and other business associates;

(b) Irreparable damage would result to the Company if the provisions of this Article 5 are not specifically enforced;

(c) The Company shall be entitled to any appropriate legal, equitable, or other remedy, including injunctive relief, in respect of any failure or continuing failure on the Employee's part to comply with this Article 5; and

(d) The Confidential Information could be used to the detriment of the Company and, without prejudice to any and all of the rights of the Company, an injunction is the only effective remedy to protect the Company's rights and property as set out herein.

5.5 The obligations of the Employee shall not apply to information which:

(a) Now or hereafter enters the public domain not as a result of the Employee's violation of this Agreement;

(b) Was known to the Employee prior to its disclosure to the Employee by the Company or developed at any time by the Employee without use of the confidential information;

(c) Is disclosed to the Employee by a third party which has the legal right to disclose such information; or

(d) The Employee is compelled to disclose to a third party court by process, in which case the Employee shall provide written notice to the Company prior to any such disclosure.

ARTICLE 6: NON-SOLICITATION AND NON-COMPETITION

6.1 The Employee agrees that for a period of twelve (12) months following termination of the Employee's employment with the Company (whether that termination is occasioned by the Employee or the Company, with or without cause), the Employee will not, for any reason whatsoever, directly or indirectly solicit or accept business from any Clients of the Company for the purposes of providing services that are the same or substantially similar to the services provided by the Company without the express written consent of the Company.

6.1.1 "Client" means any person, partnership, or corporation who lent or borrowed funds, or purchased goods or services from the Company at any time during the twelve (12) months prior to the Termination Date.

6.2 The Employee agrees that during the Term and for a period of twelve (12) months following the Termination Date (whether that termination is occasioned by the Employee or the Company, with or without cause), the Employee will not directly or indirectly:

(e) Solicit, hire or take away or cause to be solicited, hired or taken away any employee of the Company; or

(f) Attempt in any way to persuade or induce any such person to enter into any alternative employment or to leave the employ of the Company.

6.3 The Employee agrees that during the Term and for a period of six (6) months following the Termination Date (whether that termination is occasioned by the Employee or the Company, with or without cause), the Employee will not in any way be associated with, employed by, or involved directly or indirectly with any person, firm, corporation or other entity engaged in any business which is the same as, or substantially similar to, the business of the Company anywhere within the Province of Alberta, or such other provinces, in which the Company actively carried on business in the twelve (12) months immediately preceding the Termination Date.
