Licence/Registration/ID No.: Cannabis Representative - 301320-1

Date of Incident: March 22, 2025

Contravention(s):

1. Gaming, Liquor and Cannabis Regulation Section 118(1) - No cannabis supplier or officer, director or employee of a cannabis supplier and no cannabis representative may directly or indirectly make or offer to make a loan or advance or give or offer to give money, a rebate, a concession or any thing of value to a cannabis store licensee, to an employee or agent of that licensee or to a cannabis representative

Reported By: Phil Bauer, Inspector

Summary:

As a result of an industry inquiry regarding discounts on cannabis product by Freedom Cannabis, an investigation was conducted. The investigation revealed that Freedom Cannabis did offer select retail cannabis stores discounts on products. As a result of the offer and paid discounts by Freedom Cannabis, an inducement totaling $100,746.45 was paid to retail cannabis stores in Alberta.

An AGLC bulletin sent to Industry regarding the sale of data on December 6, 2023, provided direction on policy as it pertains to the purchasing and selling of data.

Investigation:

March 22, 2024

- Inspector BAUER obtained an email sent from Freedom Cannabis employee Marissa GARNEAU. Inspector BAUER noted that the email was sent to many retail cannabis stores in the province of Alberta.

- The email informed recipients that Freedom Cannabis had an overstock of 1.2 million dollars of cannabis product in provincial warehouses. The email offered up to 50% off Freedom cannabis product.

- Cannabis Representative Licensees do not have the ability to offer discounts on products without adjusting the wholesale price with AGLC. Inspector BAUER confirmed that Freedom Cannabis had not adjusted the price with AGLC.

- Inspector BAUER contacted GARNEAU regarding the matter. GARNEAU referred Inspector BAUER to Sales, Marketing & Distribution Manager, Scott SINCLAIR to discuss the matter.

March 27, 2025

- Inspector BAUER spoke with SINCLAIR. SINCLAIR informed Inspector BAUER that they did offer discounts on cannabis products to select licensees. SINCLAIR stated that they had approximately 1.2 million dollars' worth of cannabis product in the AGLC warehouse. SINCLAIR related that this was a part of a plan created to sell the overstocked cannabis product. Most of the product was going to be returned by AGLC to Freedom Cannabis if it was not sold. He said that the discount offered was an effort to sell as much product as quickly as possible and that they utilized the Independent Retail Cannabis Collective (IRCC) to facilitate and pay the discounts.

- SINCLAIR admitted that the email that was sent soliciting cannabis sales by offering discounts should not have been sent.

- The IRCC is a third-party company that is not regulated or licensed by AGLC. IRCC members consists of retail cannabis stores across the country, including Alberta. The IRCC provides different benefits including the buying and selling of data from retail cannabis stores to cannabis representatives and licensed producers. AGLC does not approve programs such as the one offered by the IRCC.

- Inspector BAUER requested SINCLAIR provide him with the data sell sheet for the month of March. This included the amount of money paid back to retailers through the IRCC as part of the discount advertised and offered. Inspector BAUER also requested a copy of the plan that was put in place to help sell cannabis product.

March 31, 2025

- Inspector BAUER received an email from Freedom Cannabis employee Gage GORDA containing Freedom Cannabis' proposed plan to move expiring cannabis product from the AGLC warehouse (Attachment #1). Inspector BAUER noted concerns with many of the strategies outlined in the plan including rebate offers, bulk purchases with rebates and chain specific limited time deals.

May 13, 2025

- Inspector BAUER received the sale information for the month of March (Attachment #2). It was noted that Freedom Cannabis paid $100,746.45 in total fees through IRCC to cannabis retailers for product that was advertised as being discounted.

- Seventy retail cannabis stores in Alberta received discounts paid by Freedom Cannabis through the IRCC for products advertised as discounted.

May 27, 2025

- Inspector BAUER spoke with Freedom Cannabis representatives, SINCLAIR, Tim LATIMER and Shareholder John Frank POTESTIO. In the meeting, SINCLAIR stated that the reason they had such an over stock of cannabis product in AGLC warehouses, was because they had made a deal with a retail cannabis store in 2024. Freedom Cannabis would purchase sales data and in return, the retail cannabis store would commit to buying an agreed upon amount of Freedom Cannabis product. The retail cannabis store never fulfilled their end of the deal, and this left Freedom Cannabis with a large amount of unpurchased cannabis product in AGLC warehouse. SINCLAIR stated that this is what lead them to offering discounts and attempting to sell cannabis product as quickly as possible. Inspector BAUER informed them that the original deal was potentially a violation of section 118(1) of the Gaming Liquor and Cannabis Regulation.

- Data agreements outlining the sale and purchase of retail cannabis store sales data is permitted in Alberta. Cannabis representatives are permitted to purchase sales data. Those agreements are not permitted to be tied to the amount of cannabis being purchased by the retail cannabis store or other include considerations such as discounts or rebates.

- An Inducement training seminar was offered by AGLC on November 20, 2024. The training consisted of inducement regulations and policies as well as covered the topic of data selling and purchasing. SINCLAIR was documented as being in attendance.

September 4, 2025

- Inspector BAUER spoke with LATIMER and informed that as a result of the offer to provide discounts on cannabis purchases', and the money paid to retail cannabis stores in Alberta, an Incident Report was being submitted. LATIMER stated that he understood and that Freedom Cannabis was in a position where they needed to sell cannabis product quickly in order to avoid further financial hardship.

Freedom Cannabis Inc. – AGLC Sell-Through Game Plan

March 5th, 2025

Objective:

To execute an aggressive sell-through strategy that prioritizes high-risk SKUs, minimizes RTV exposure, and maximizes revenue through strategic pricing, retail partnerships, and marketing initiatives.

1. IRCC Program – Aggressive Rebate Strategy

- Implement SKU-specific rebate programs based on:

- Volume commitments – Higher volume = deeper rebate.
- Inventory levels – Higher inventory SKUs receive more aggressive pricing support.
- Sell-through timelines – Rebate incentives tied to velocity targets.

- Ensures retailers are financially motivated to prioritize Freedom's SKUs.

2. Rep Discounts – In-Market Sales Incentives

- Equip sales reps with flexible discounting power to drive volume orders.

- Provide tiered discounting based on purchase size:

- Small orders = Standard discount.
- Mid-sized orders = Enhanced discount.
- Large orders = Deepest discount (to drive bulk buys).

- Reps will leverage existing retail partnerships to push volume.

3. Key Retail Chains – Strategic Supply Deals

- Engage key retail chains for:

- Volume commitments – Secure bulk purchase agreements with rebates.
- Bundled purchasing – Retailers take a mix of top-performing and underperforming SKUs.
- Exclusive promotions – Offer chain-specific discounts or limited-time deals.

- Ensures equitable movement of all SKUs, not just the top performers.

4. Marketing & Communication Strategy

- Prioritized SKU Marketing

- Promote key SKUs via social media campaigns and email newsletters.
- Implement staff education and budtender incentives on priority SKUs.
- Encourage in-store promotions and merchandising support.

- Align communication efforts with sales objectives to maximize demand.

5. Voluntary RTV – Product Repurposing

- For unsellable SKUs, initiate a controlled voluntary RTV strategy:

- Identify products unlikely to sell through traditional retail channels.
- Return and repurpose inventory for other markets (e.g., medical, extraction, pre-roll blending).

- Ensures minimal financial losses while optimizing product usage.

Execution & Timeline

- Immediate rollout of IRCC program and rep discounts.

- Retailer meetings are scheduled within the week for orders starting to flow next week.

- Marketing initiatives launched in sync with discounting efforts immediately.

- Voluntary RTV decisions finalized within the week to identify which SKUs can be repurposed in other markets.
